JIMENA LOPEZ

Owner & Winemaker, Graffito
Winemaker, Bodini

Born in Mendoza with a passion for Enology, Jimena Lopez is an extraordinary winemaker who has traveled near and far to perfect her craft. Jimena prides herself on taking risks and pushing past pre-established boundaries. She has lived and worked in the U.S., Mexico, Australia, France, and Germany. After nearly 30+ years of experience, she is proud to call Graffito a special, genuine, and soulful brand.

Jimena's studies did not stop after receiving her degree in Enology. She continued to get postgraduate degrees in both Enology and Viticulture. Today, she remains the main professor at the Catholic University of Cuyo in the Enology department.

Jimena is the mother of two daughters, Julieta and Valentina, and she enjoys exploring and sharing the world with them. Jimena spends her time working in her garden, going to the theater, walking on the beach, and pushing past traditional barriers in the wine industry. She is a true force to be reckoned with and ready to show the world what Argentina is capable of.
